Item 14 of the provisional agenda*
Non-governmental organizations

Report of the Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations on its 2014 regular session

(New York, 21-30 January and 7 February 2014)

Summary

At its 2014 regular session, held from 21 to 30 January and on 7 February 2014, the Committee on Non-Governmental Organizations had before it 439 applications for consultative status, including 219 applications deferred from earlier sessions. Of the non-governmental organizations submitting those applications, the Committee recommended 225 for consultative status, deferred 192 for further consideration at its resumed session in 2014 and closed consideration without prejudice of 22 applications that had failed to respond to queries over two consecutive sessions of the Committee. The Committee also had before it 3 requests for reclassification of consultative status; it recommended granting 2 of those requests. The Committee considered 5 requests for change of name and took note of three of those requests. It also had before it 313 quadrennial reports, of which it took note of 279. The Committee heard 15 representatives of 41 non-governmental organizations that attended the session.

The present report contains three draft decisions on matters calling for action by the Economic and Social Council.

By draft decision I, the Council would:

- (a) Grant consultative status to 225 non-governmental organizations;
- (b) Reclassify the consultative status of two non-governmental organizations;
- (c) Note that the Committee decided to take note of the change of name of three non-governmental organizations;

* E/2014/1.

(d) Note that the Committee took note of the quadrennial reports of 279 non-governmental organizations;

(e) Close without prejudice consideration of the request for consultative status made by 22 non-governmental organizations after the organizations had failed to respond to queries over the course of two consecutive sessions of the Committee.

By draft decision II, the Council would withdraw the consultative status of one organization with a continued outstanding quadrennial report, Association algérienne d'alphabétisation.

By draft decision III, the Council would take note of the present report.

Bureau international pour le respect des droits de l'homme au Sahara Occidental

6. At its 9th meeting, on 27 January, the representative of Morocco made a statement. He expressed deep concern regarding the application of the organization and its politically motivated activities against the sovereignty and territorial integrity of the Kingdom of Morocco. He requested the closure of this application by consensus. The United States' representative, however, expressed support for the application by the organization. The Committee decided to defer consideration of the application of the organization.

Fondation Alkarama

7. At its 10th meeting, on 28 January, the Committee reviewed the application of the organization Fondation Alkarama. The delegation of the United States expressed significant concerns with the organization's application for consultative status with the Council, stating that the United States Department of Treasury has listed the President of the organization's board of trustees, Mr. Abdel Rahman Omair Al-Naimi, on the Office of Foreign Asset Control's Specially Designated Nationals List for providing financial support to al-Qa'ida, Asbat al-Ansar, al-Qa'ida in Iraq, and al-Shabaab. Given these concerns, the United States would seek a consensus decision to close the application of the organization at the 2014 resumed session of the Committee.

Applications closed without prejudice

8. At its 14th meeting, on 30 January, the Committee decided to close without prejudice consideration of the applications of 22 non-governmental organizations that had not responded to the Committee's questions despite three reminders sent to the organizations (see chap. I, draft decision I (e)).

B. New applications for consultative status and new requests for reclassification
